During this time of chaos, a young hero who calls himself "a Tarnished Hero" appears, and his destiny is set to the direction which led to the end of the world. As he's about to take his first step on his journey, a great conflict will commence between the two groups existing in the Lands Between—those which embrace the destructive power of man and those which firmly believe in the power of the Old Gods. Features Key:

The action RPG comes with the completed story of Legend. In this world where two realms that once stood side by side have been driven apart in conflict, a gentle land and a harsh land, the seas between these lands have become ruled over by the pasts' enemies. Old conflicts have resulted in an endless series of wars and dynasties have risen. The elders of both lands have become overrun by these dynasties. The land no longer lives in harmony with itself... Yet its land continues to live. In this world of two lands, it is the sworn duty of beings who wield sacred power to preserve the land and its inhabitants. Those who do that will be able to call themselves "Chosen One" and swear to protect the world. No matter who you are - adventurer, knight, king, or priest - your destiny awaits you.

At the heart of the lands between. This place is a battlefield where combat takes place in 3D, with both ancient and modern weapons. The battlefield that spawned each of the Living Weapons has not yet reached the world of mortal men, but as the gems possessed by the Casters scatter around the world, people will become aware of the existence of these weapons. The battle is about to begin...

Even the noble birth, who have mastered the art of utilizing the living weapon, are still face to face with skills as well as the enemy's attacks that are incomprehensible. As a result, a number of players with no combat experience, such as the mortals, pose a serious threat. To ensure the safety of the upper classes, an artificial intelligence, which refines the enemy attacks and allows the action to be more easily controlled, has been added. The AI of the Living Weapons no longer responds to random enemy status and instead allows you to remain suspicious of what type of enemy poses the most danger. The higher the level of the living weapon, the higher the value of intelligence added (AI+)

Castles, castles, and the world created based on the deepened mechanics.

What's new in Elden Ring:

I'm busy, I'll start buying some more supplies tomorrow, I don't have time right now, but I'm seeing some ships that I want, and I'll be going to Harrshill for some grinding, and such. I was a bit worried about the pre-order bonus gear in Cataclysm, the blues was meh, as usual, the Vocation perks felt too powerful (but that's all I have to say about that subject). And I figured that the auction house was going to be a bit more expensive, as it would need to be somewhat balanced for the rest of us landlubbers. But as it turns out? It's free! All you need to do is level in the next Expansion as a level 80 (which I already have done) and find a rep, the prices aren't that bad, though, and in the Auction House it will cost you 10k silver (free, which is why it's free). That's not too bad. You get a ton of random gear of differing levels, and if they are Horde gear the high reagent prices mean you don't need to be bothered grinding as much. Quality is pretty good, though leveling in beta/closed and alts can't use it, or it will want to sell at half price. The rep is in Mogu'Shan Vaults, so that might be a bit tough to obtain. The rep is available starting today! I'll start buying some more supplies tomorrow, I don't have time right now, but I'm seeing some ships that I want, and I'll be going to Harrshill for some grinding, and such. I'll be going to Magic Galleon on Monday! I'm thinking about buying a combat ship for some scrapping since I have seen some ships there. Pretty cool, right? -- I couldn't see nothing plain to see, only notes, here and there, and that was written in human words. The real question is: Why did I feel called? Why did I have to put on a torn and dirty blouse to go and stand in that church? Why did I have to wear a silly sash around my waist? From then on, I shall wear whatever I want, so be it. -- Jamillsfuh Rannick I played a minor role in the battle, but still, I was at a higher level than the
